at times and often it would seem as if I would have to have my leg amputated as the pain became almost unendurable. I suffered beyond description. Finally, hearing of Hood's Sarsaparilla I concluded to try it. After I had taken one bottle I felt much better and after taking several bottles can say I am well,

My Knee Has Been Cured and that I can walk and go around as well as any one of my age. I am 63 years old and work my farm, and my ability to do so I attribute to the beneficial effects of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I advise all who are smitched with rheumatism in any form to take Hood's Sarsaparilla." EZRA BEN-EDICT, Stromsburgh, Nebraska.

CHOULE'S SHOE SHOP BURGLAR IZED.

Burglars Get Only a Coat and Vest-Much Shotuing and Other Noise, but no Officers Were Aroused, Choule's shoe shop on lower Centre street was broken into again last night. Burglars seem to have a special delight in entering this particular store, so frequent are their exploits inside that building during the dark bours of night, that many have come to the conclusion that it is not tramps who enter it every time. Rather that it is some bitter enemies, residents of Provo, who know the structure of the shop well and who have it "in for" Mr. Choules and who desire to do him all the harm they can.

The persons who entered the shop last night certainly knew well the premises, the Irail structure of the back door, its weakest parts and how

A large hole was cut in the back bars and remove the smaller catch— the door has no lock on it—and the door opened. The burglars then en-tered and looked gently at the sleeping boy, lifted an overcoot off his bed and Thomas Martin.

Fifth ward—H. B. Smart, Myron Newell.

The Fifth ward instructed their delegates to the city convention for Joseph T. McEwan for mayor. The First ward delegates held a caucus after the primary and concluded to come up is support of him for mayor. The other wards took no action, but from every democrat in town is heard "Joe Mac ior mayor," "McEwan next mayor of Provo," "Joe Mac, the man o. the people, will beat Holbrook for mayor." The common people, the working men, everybody loves sterling, honest Joe Mac, and he'll be our next mayor, and similar expressions. And it is already a foregone conclusion that Hon. Joseph T. McEwan will be nominated for mayor by acclamation at the constant of the constant of the people will be nominated for mayor by acclamation at the constant of the constant struggle for liberty during the revolu- for he has ideas and methods that are struggle for heerty during the revolu-tion, the central figure would be some old fifer or drummer with white flow-ing hair and bare head. All around him lay the dead and dying, but they seem to be noticed not, as, with erect form, and with eyes and face beaming though we had selected a democratic marshal of the day, who proceeded to form, and with eyes and face beaming with the inspiration of patriotism, he looks for ward into futurity with supreme faith that the "bow of promise" which glows dimly in the distrace is a harbinger of victory, and whispers to him that the great god of battles will bring uttimate victory. And as I looked at that aged drummer last evening and noted the earnest enthusiasm that lit up his pale face, I coul not help but associate him with those old revolutionary neroes. And, as I looked as that aged drummer last evening and noted the earnest enthusiasm that lit up his pale face, I coul not help but associate him with those old revolutionary neroes. And, as I ind a different pathway to not help but associate him with those old revolutionary heroes. And, as I looked over that targe audience, every face beaming with intelligence and patrictism, I only wished that those parcides on manhood that are charging "political buncomb" and insincertly to Utah democrats because of the mighty uprising against a series of mighty uprising against a series of mighty uprising against a series of mighty wrongs, could have been at that meeting Their infinetisemal souls would have shriveled within them for their lying and intentional deception.

Mr. Vaux Did Dance With Her. The story often told that the late Hon. Richard Vaux had danced with Queen Victoria has been dezied quite frequently since his death, but as a matter of fact he did dance with the queen. He was not her partner, it is true, but danced in what was known as the queen's cotillon at the ball given in her honor in 1837, when he was sec-retary of the United States legation. Mr. Vaux was selected by the queen her-
